The Impact of Immigration Status in Employment Law

Biography

Chirag G. Badlani is a partner at Hughes Socol Piers Resnick & Dym, Ltd. He represents clients in a wide variety of civil matters, with a focus in the areas of civil rights, constitutional law, labor and employment, and commercial litigation. He also represents clients in asylum and refugee matters. He joined Hughes Socol in 2012.

Mr. Badlani received his J.D. magna cum laude from New York University School of Law in 2008, where he served as a Production Editor for the Journal of International Law and Politics and as a Competitions Research and Writing Editor for the Moot Court Board. During law school, Mr. Badlani worked at NYU's Immigrant Rights Clinic. He received his B.A. from Yale College in 2003.

Prior to joining Hughes Socol, Mr. Badlani was a law clerk to the Honorable Ann Claire Williams of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, and to the Honorable Allyne Ross of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York. He also worked as a Planning Associate at the Vera Institute of Justice, in the Center on Immigration and Justice.

Mr. Badlani is a member of the Illinois and New York bars.
