

State of Illinois
Human Rights Commission

The Illinois Human Rights Commission is proud to participate in the Office of the Illinois Attorney General's Address Confidentiality Program (ACP).

Address Confidentiality for Victims of Domestic Violence (750 ILCS 61/25)

If you are a Participant in the ACP please provide a copy of your valid Authorization Card, as shown below, when filing at the Commission.

	Illinois Attorney General
	<small>Pursuant to 750 IL CS61/15 the following person is authorized to use the following address as a substitute</small>
<small>Illinois Address Confidentiality Program</small>	Jane Doe ACP 1011 211 S. Clark St. #2195 Chicago, IL 60690
	<small>Expires 10/1/23</small>

When creating new public record, state agencies and agencies of local units of government shall accept this address as the ACP participant's only address of record and it must be used on all correspondence. 750 ILCS 61/25 CALL 844-916-0295 (toll-free) with any questions regarding the Address Confidentiality Program and the use of this card.
--

Thank You!

Illinois Human Rights Commission